Vendor Terms, Waiver, and Agreement

Submitting this application is a request to participate at the 2025 Family Fun Fest & Chili Cook Off and does not guarantee a reserved spot. Application will be taken into consideration and a Festival Representative will contact you in writing with approval or non-approval status. All participating Vendors agree to the following terms:

1. Waiver of Liability and Hold Harmless Agreement
The vendor assumes full responsibility for any risk, damage, or injury arising from their participation in the event. CoastLife Credit Union, the FOCUS Foundation, event organizers, sponsors, staff, and volunteers will not provide insurance coverage or accept liability for any personal injury, loss, theft, damage, or other incidents involving the vendor, their staff, equipment, or merchandise. The vendor hereby waives, releases, and discharges the above-mentioned parties from any and all claims or liabilities arising from their participation, and agrees to indemnify and hold harmless said parties from any resulting damages, legal fees, or claims brought by third parties.

2. Prohibited Items
To maintain the quality, integrity, and family-friendly nature of the event:

- The sale of deemed items such as, but not limited to: CBD or Smoke Shop items, political items, garage sale items, used goods, or secondhand merchandise is strictly prohibited.
- Only new, handmade, or commercially produced items in clean and sellable condition will be allowed.

Violation of this policy may result in the removal of specific items and/or vendor dismissal from the event without refund.

3. Item Approval and Vendor Conduct

The FOCUS Foundation and CoastLife Credit Union reserve the right to approve or deny any merchandise, product, or service to be displayed or sold at the event. They also reserve the right to cancel a booth or remove any items or activities deemed, in their sole discretion:

- Inconsistent with the quality or values of the event,
- Inappropriate for a family-friendly audience, or
- In conflict with CoastLife Credit Union's brand, mission, or services.

4. Food, Beverages, or edible items

Edible items are not allowed to be sold in the vendor area unless a valid Health Permit is presented.
